

California Department of Education

Certificate of Recognition

is presented to

Superintendent Greg Magnuson and Footsteps2Brilliance

in honor of their partnership and the city-wide effort to help with children to become kindergarten ready and to read proficiently by the 3rd grade. This transformative literacy effort, which is available in both English and Spanish, also supports the White House Initiative on Hispanic Educational Excellence.

You exemplify the spirit of service that is essential to creating a supportive and thriving community.

Thank you for your leadership and significant contributions to the community.

Tom Tomblason

State Superintendent of Public Instruction

October 23rd, 2015

